Unity, since the beginning of time, has been essential to human society. Through understanding, this unity is attainable. But without knowledge even understanding is impossible.

Looking backward in retrospect, we see with amazement, that we have come a long way in these four years at Bishop Moore. With the knowledge, skill, and understanding acquired through many hours of prayer, work and play shared together we find ourselves well equipped to face the many challenges of a life of dedication and service in a fast-changing world.

The struggle to reach this summit is spread upon these pages of Moore Memories, the end product of many cherished hours of working together.

We have chosen as our own the theme of the Ecumenical Council—"Unity Through Understanding."

It is our fond hope that we, the Class of '63, will ever remain in one heart and in one mind in Christ.

The Class Reunion

Every ten years, as summertime nears,
An announcement arrives in the mail
A reunion is planned: it'll be really grand;
Make plans to attend without fail

I'll never forget the first time we met;
We tried so hard to impress.
We drove fancy cars, smoked big cigars,
And wore our most elegant dress.

It was quite an affair, the whole class was there.
It was held at a fancy hotel.
We wined, and we dined, and we acted refined,
And everyone thought it was swell.

The men all conversed about who had been first
To achieve great fortune and fame.
Meanwhile, their spouses described their fine houses
And how beautiful their children became.

At our next get-together, no one cared whether
They impressed their classmates or not.
The mood was informal, a whole lot more normal;
By this time we'd all gone to pot.

It was held out-of-doors, at the lake shores;
We ate hamburgers, coleslaw, and beans,
Then most of us lay around in the shade,
In our comfortable t-shirts and jeans.

By the fortieth year, it was abundantly clear,
We were definitely over the hill.
Those who weren't dead had to crawl out of bed,
And be home in time for their pill.

And now I can't wait, they've set the date;
Our fiftieth is coming, I'm told.
It should be a ball, they've rented a hall
At the Shady Rest Home for the Old.

Repairs have been made on my hearing aid,
My pacemaker's been turned up on high.
My wheelchair is oiled, and my teeth have been boiled.
And I've bought a new wig and glass eye.

I'm feeling quite hearty and I'm ready to party
I'm gonna dance til dawn's early light.
It'll be lots of fun, but I hope that there's one
Other person who can make it that night.
